Ruby Nouveau

Estate-Grown Dry Red Wine

This is Wisconsin's version of a Beaujolais Nouveau, traditionally released the third Thursday in November. Winemaker Philippe follows the traditional methods of whole berry fermentation of his home region in France.

Grape: 80% Maréchal Foch and 20% Millot, estate-grown grapes - Lake Wisconsin Viticultural Area

Production Method: Whole berry fermentation, no aging

Sweetness: Dry

Alcohol: 13%

Serving Temperature: Cool room temperature

Aging Potential: Enjoy young

Serve with: White meats, lightly spiced dishes

History: Started making Ruby Nouveau in 1984
